Ratification—Dry's Ask
Recount.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 11.—November 20 was set by the Supreme Court today for hearing arguments on the government's appeal from federal court decisions in Kentucky holding the war time prohibition act unconstitutional.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Ohio last Tuesday voted against ratifying the federal prohibition amendment by a majority of 641, according to complete official returns received today by the secretary of state. The vote was for ratification 499,879. Against ratification 690,520.

Secretary of State Smith announced that some errors are apparent in the complete official vote and that the official returns from 9 counties will be sent to the county election boards for correction. He also announced that the official figures from 34 counties would have to be verified.

SAYS POLITICS
PLAYED PART IN
CAMP GRANT WORK

Changes Made Before
Congressional Committee There Today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Rockford, Ill., Nov. 11.—Starting testimony as to the part politics is alleged to have played in the granting of Camp Grant buildings contracts was given by Ross Beckstrom, a Rockford contractor, at the morning session of the sub-congressional committee.

Beckstrom charged that huge contracts for the construction of additional hospital facilities at the local cantonment in 1918 were awarded by the emergency construction committee of the National Council of Defense, composed of architects and contractors to its political and business "friends."

Relating a conversation which he said took place in Washington in February, 1918, between himself and a Captain Granger of the committee, Beckstrom testified the army officer said so much "political influence was being brought to bear upon the emergency construction body" that he had "to divide the cantonment work among certain interests."

Beckstrom said that after his company had completed its first big contract at Camp Grant he was told he had been recommended by Col. W. O. Smith for additional work to cost $500,000. A week later, he said, Col. Smith told him things were not looking just right and urged him to go to Washington and present his case there. The witness said that at Washington he saw Col. Betts, who said Smith's recommendation of Beckstrom had come back from the committee with Beckstrom's name scratched off and the name of Henry Erickson, of Chicago, substituted.

"Col. Betts said he was sorry the War Department couldn't conduct government business in a business-like way but declared that he was powerless to help my company after that," Beckstrom told on the stand.

Beckstrom said Simon O'Donnell, of Chicago, was very active in behalf of the other company, and that O'Donnell made a personal trip to Rockford to help the Erickson company here. "I also heard Senator J. Hamilton Lewis was very active in the interests of the Chicago firm," Beckstrom testified.

Rounding Up Drug
Peddlers in Chicago

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Additional arrests today were promised in the campaign here against the alleged illegal traffic in narcotic drugs which officials of the Internal Revenue Department said disclosed Chicago as the center of the country's contraband dispensing of the drugs hauled under the Harrison act. The next step in the dispute between Col. L. G. Nutt, present chief of the Chicago internal revenue office, and Dr. William H. Sage, former head, in which they filed charges of misconduct against each other, awaiting action at Washington.

In the present drive seven persons have been arrested, including one white and two negro doctors and the white wife of a Chinaman. Eight other persons today were being sought.

"The charges are made against me by Col. Nutt are ridiculous," said Dr. Sage. Dr. Sage formerly owned an interest in a drug store where two of the seven arrested persons worked.

Col. Nutt filed charges against Dr. Sage previous to the doctor's sudden resignation from office two months ago. The charges against the present chief were filed some time ago, said Dr. Sage, who also said he telegraphed yesterday to D. C. Reper, commissioner of internal revenue, demanding the immediate suspension of Col. Nutt, and investigation of charges against him.

SUPERB SERVICE

Associated Press Prompt Report On Coal Strike End This Morn

Because of the superb service furnished The Telegraph by the Associated Press the news of the decision of the coal miners' committee to call off the strike of bituminous coal miners was given to the people of Dixon in an extra edition of The Telegraph this morning. When The Telegraph's leased wire opened at 7 o'clock the first news to come over it was that of the result of the Indianapolis conference, thus making possible the early extra edition.

The Associated Press' promptness in this story was a fitting reminder of its fine work of a year ago this morning when it announced the signing of the armistice many minutes before any other press association.

HIGH WIND IS CAUSE OF SOME
DAMAGE IN CITY

Trees Blown Down Carrying Wires with Them in Storm.

The miniature cyclone that swept over Dixon all day yesterday, the wind increasing in velocity as the evening approached, did considerable damage. Limbs of trees were torn off and in some instances trees were blown down. A big tree on Fourth St. between Galena and Ottawa avenues was torn out of the ground by the high wind about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and several electric light and telephone wires were torn down as the big tree crashed to the ground.

A wind mill on a farm west of Dixon on the middle road was blown down in the middle of the afternoon, falling across the road directly behind a horse and buggy carrying women and children to Dixon. The parties in the rig had a narrow escape from being crushed beneath the steel work of the wrecked tower.

Last night only a very small number of street lights were burning in any part of the city. The service was put out of commission early in the evening and the city was in darkness for the remainder of the night. One citizen who was on his way down town last evening when the wind was blowing its fiercest, had the misfortune to lose a new felt hat. The wind blew the hat up Second street and in the darkness the owner was unable to follow the course taken by his new hat and consequently lost it.

At Sterling the wind seemed to be of greater velocity than in Dixon. The roof of the Twin-City Machine Shop was partly blown off and two very large plate glass windows at the J. K. Chester Co. dry goods store were blown out.

Her parents are also well known here, and visited in Dixon last Sunday.

Anniversary of Signing
of Armistice Cause
of Joy.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—The first anniversary of the signing of the armistice and the ending of hostilities in the World War was observed generally today throughout the United States. Governors of nearly a dozen states had proclaimed the day a legal holiday while many mayors through proclamations and public statements called attention to the significance of the day.

President Wilson in a statement addressed to all Americans declared "the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory both because of the thing from which it has freed us, and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of nations."

Messages From Generals.
Gen. Pershing and Secretaries Baker, Daniels and Lansing also pointed out in statements to the American people the deep and solemn meaning of the day, while Gen. March, chief of staff, in

ARMISTICE DAY
IN DIXON QUIET

In the absence of any official proclamation, there was no united observance of the first anniversary of Armistice day by the people of Dixon today. In many cities proclamations were issued to suspend all business for at least one minute at 11 o'clock, to bare their heads and face the east, toward the fields on which many thousand brave American young men laid down their lives that their families might have peace.

There was some observance in the public schools of the city and this evening a dance will be given by Dixon post of the Loyal Legion in observance of the day. At the Elks' club a banquet and entertainment has been arranged both in observance of Armistice day and as a reception for the members of the lodge who served in the war. Short addresses are on the program bearing on Armistice day.

Only a very few places displayed the American flag early this morning in observance of the day, but slowly, as attention was called to the fact that this was a special day for patriotic observance, flags were floated.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE CELEBRATED AT
ELKS THIS EVENING

Armistice day will be celebrated this evening by all the members of Dixon lodge of Elks at their club rooms with a reception and entertainment for all of the members who served in any branch of the late world war. The celebration is to start with a four-course banquet served at 6:30, this to be followed with an impromptu program of short talks by Past Exalted Rulers and a few special speakers selected for the occasion.

The remainder of the evening until a late hour will be spent in enjoying the program that has been prepared by the special committee. Only members of the lodge who have sent in cards of acceptance are to have places reserved for them on this occasion.

SEE SHOW AS GUESTS
TOILET SOAP MAKERS

Scores of Dixon people will today and tomorrow witness the performances at the Family Theater through the courtesy of the manufacturers of Remmo Soap, a new toilet article on the local market which has made countless friends among those who have used it. The manufacturers of the soap have arranged with the management of the theater for the redemption of wrappers from this soap at five cents each on admissions to the performances and many are taking advantage of the arrangement.

BABY CALLED TO

Vivian Lucille Owens, daughter of Clyde Owens, 2302 West First street, died last evening about 7:30, death being caused by a lingering illness of acute gastritis. The child was born in this city Sept. 23 of this year, the mother passing away about a week afterward. The funeral was held this afternoon from the home of an aunt at Rock Falls, burial taking place in the Rock Falls cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Braden went to Chicago last Monday to attend the funeral of their niece, Miss Anna Kau.

STRIKE STATEMENTS
THE MINERS

"The operators have repeatedly declared that they were ready to enter into negotiations with the miners if the strike order were withdrawn. The issue has been submitted to the court and in compliance with the court's ruling the strike order has been cancelled and withdrawn. It seems that good faith on the part of the operators requires them to meet the miners' representatives at once for the purpose of negotiating a settlement of this wage controversy, and that good faith on the part of the government requires it to see that such a resumption of negotiations is had at once and concluded without delay."—Their Attorneys.

THE OPERATORS
"So far as the operators' are concerned the situation is unchanged. We have always been ready to resume negotiations with the miners when the strike was called off."—Thos. J. Brewster, Chairman Operators' Scale Committee.

THE GOVERNMENT
"I shall immediately call the miners and operators together to negotiate a wage agreement."—Secretary of Labor Wilson.

ILLINOIS MEN
MAY NOT HEED
LATEST ORDER

Attaches at State Miners' Office Will
Not Talk.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Joliet, Ill., Nov. 11.—Miners in the Willington coal district south of here today stated that there was doubt the men would obey Lewis' order to go back to work. They were without orders from state or local officials but the individual opinions were against resumption of work before their demands had been adjusted. Mines are ready to start work if the men decide to resume.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 11.—Ninety thousand soft coal miners in Illinois, idle today, awaited an interpretation of the decision of their national officials to call off the strike.

It was impossible this morning to determine just what effect the action of international miners' officials in bowing to the will of the government would have on the rank and file in the Illinois coal fields, especially because of the violent feeling of hostility to the strike injunction previously manifested in many camps.

Leaders in charge of the 12th district in the absence of state miners' officials who are in Indianapolis, were loath to discuss the situation. They would not forecast whether the mine workers in Illinois would submit willingly to the direction of their officials, and were inclined to await further information as to the inner deliberations of the conference.

Operators Are Hopeful
Operators said they had no way of telling whether miners would resume work in response to the direction of their officials, but maintained a hopeful attitude that a settlement would be reached through mediation of government agencies.

Sub-district officials at the office of the Springfield sub-district here refused to talk about the action of Acting President Lewis and his associates. It was suggested, however, by a miner in the office that "the response to the strike rescinding order will show what the mine workers think."

Word was being passed around among miners in Springfield as reflected in talks with individual coal diggers, that the return to work order was to be ignored.

"The miners, some of them may go back in West Virginia, where they are not organized very well, but there will be no weakening in Illinois, Indiana and Western Pennsylvania," one miner is quoted as saying.

PAVILION CASE IS
ON TRIAL THIS P. M.

The trial in the case of the city against the Rock River Valley Breeders Sales association, in which the prosecution will endeavor to show that the company's sale pavilion in Dementown, is a nuisance, was started in Police Magistrate Sheller's court at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Attorneys John P. Devine and H. A. Brooks are appearing for the defendant and City Attorney R. H. Scott represents the interests of the city.

ORDER ENDING STRIKE IS APPROVED

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—United States District Judge A. B. Anderson at 10 o'clock this morning approved the order of the officials of the United Mine Workers of America, rescinding the strike order of Oct. 15. Attorneys for the miners promised to try to have it in the mails by 6 o'clock this evening. This action was taken following a session of the general committee of the miners, which decided early today to comply with the mandate of the court issued last Saturday.

Judge Anderson characterized the order as a "good faith effort" to comply with his mandate. The text of the order follows:

"Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11, 1919.

"To the Officials and Members of the United Mine Workers of America:

"Dear Sirs and Brothers:
"In obedience to the mandate issued on November 8 by the United States Court, District of Indiana, Judge A. B. Anderson presiding, the undersigned hereby advise you that the order of October 15 directing a cessation of operations in the bituminous coal fields of our jurisdiction, is withdrawn and cancelled.

"Yours fraternally

"JOHN L. LEWIS, President."

J. C. Lewis, district president, is expected back from Indianapolis tomorrow.

LOYAL TO GOVERNMENT
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Declaring they would tear up their union cards before they would strike in defiance of the government, 132 coal miners, employed at a stripping mine near Hopedale, Jefferson county, resumed work today before news came of the miners' organization decision to recall the strike order.

The action followed an address to the men by District Attorney Bolin of Columbus, who went to Hopedale when informed that officials of the miners union had given directions to the men contrary to the restraining order issued at Indianapolis.

IOWA MINES TO OPEN

D'ANNUNZIO IN
ATTACK ON PRES.
WILSON'S ACTION

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Rome, Monday, Nov. 10.—Belgium, after suffering the terrors of invasions, knows today the horror of ingratitude. Italy also is the victim of the ingratitude of men.

Thus spoke Gabriele D'Annunzio to the Belgian poet Les Koehnitzky according to the latter.

"The situation at Fiume changed profoundly after the refusal by the United States of the recent project of Foreign Minister Tittoni," Koehnitzky quotes D'Annunzio as saying: "President Wilson rejected the solution suggested by Italy, which was insufficient and entirely disapproved by me. Besides this, President Wilson replied with new restrictions. Only the illness which struck him down, can explain, if not justify his obstinacy, his unprecedented bulldog opposition."

THE ORDER TO REINSTATE

The order to reinstate was presented to the court by Henry Warrum, Indianapolis, attorney for the miners. After the court proceedings, Mr. Warrum, G. L. Grant, Fort Smith, Ark., and P. C. Huebner, Albia, Iowa, associated counsel, then issued a statement in the presence of the government attorneys in which the position of the mine workers was stated.

Miners Statement.
The statement of the attorney follows:
"The operators have repeatedly declared that they were ready to enter into negotiations with the miners if the strike order were withdrawn. The government has taken the position that in the vindication of its own supremacy the strike order must be withdrawn before they would take any steps to compel the resumption of such negotiations. The issue has been submitted to the court and in compliance with the court's ruling the strike order has been cancelled and withdrawn. It seems that good faith on the part of the operators requires them to meet the miners' representatives at once for the purpose of negotiating a settlement of this wage controversy, and that good faith on the part of the government requires it to see that such a resumption of negotiations is had at once and concluded without delay."

Lewis Refuses Statement
John L. Lewis, acting president of the mine workers, said after the union's order had been approved by the court, that he had nothing to add to his statement made at the close of the miners' conference early this morning. He said that no supplemental statement to the membership of the organization was contemplated at this time.

Although delegates to the meeting of the miners apparently were pledged to secrecy as to details of the proceedings during their protracted session, it was learned from a well authenticated source that there was bitter opposition to compliance with the court's order.

Mr. Grant of the miners' counsel, said that a complete record of the injunction proceedings was expected today, and that preparation of the miners' appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals in Chicago would be begun at once.

An order calling off the strike was to be issued today, following the decision of the general committee of the United Mine Workers of America early this morning to obey the mandate of United States District Judge A. M. Anderson, issued here last Saturday. The general committee, composed of international officers, district presidents and members of the executive board and scale committee, reached its decision at 4:10 this morning and adjourned five minutes later to reconvene at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

"Gentlemen, we will comply with the mandate of the court. We do it under protest. We are Americans. We can not fight our government. That is all."

Officials Warn Out.
This was the statement of John L. Lewis, acting president of the mine workers, announcing the decision, and other members of the conference, worn out by their long hours of discussion declined to add to the statement of their chief and soon dispersed.

When the order, calling off the strike will be drafted could not be learned early today, but, under the order of Judge Anderson, it must be submitted to the court for his approval at 10 o'clock this morning and be on its way to the membership by 6 o'clock this evening. So far as could be learned no committee was appointed at the conference to write the order.

Momentous Meeting
The meeting was probably the most momentous ever held by the miners' organization, if not the most weighty ever conducted by a labor organization in this country, for, in the view of labor leaders, it was to determine whether an organization would be forced by governmental pressure through the

a message "To The Veterans" asserted:

"The first anniversary of the armistice finds the country holding in most affectionate remembrance the work you performed so cheerfully and gallantly during your service here and overseas. The story of your participation in the war will inspire future generations."

"You have now turned your attention to civil problems, in which the lessons you learned in war may be aptly applied. Patriotism, self-control, and unity of action make for the future welfare of the country as well as for the success in battle. You have stood fast under fire and today your country expects you to stand as firmly in aiding your government and establishing the doctrines of true Americanism so they will endure forever. Having passed through the great struggle, you stand as an example of idealism to coming generations; be inspired with the thought that you must continue to be a good example of the glorious spirit which actuated you in your fight for liberty."

Copying the spontaneous outburst of a year ago, persons in vehicles and walking gathered downtown and spent the early hours passing about through the streets to the accompaniment of pandemonium, accomplished by the use of tin horns, cow bells, tin pans and various other noise-making devices.

The day's program included the stoppage of all industry in the city for five minutes beginning at 11 p. m. in memory of the nation's heroic dead. A formal automobile parade occupied part of the morning, and band concerts were scheduled for different hours.

In the state arsenal tonight, Brig. Gen. W. K. Naylor of the 33rd division will deliver an address. This is to be followed by a grand ball.

Celebration plans were arranged by the Springfield post of the American Legion.

AMBOY MAN FINED FOR DIGGING UP NEIGHBOR'S PIPE

Sam Long, of Amboy, was fined $10 and costs by Justice A. A. Virgil of that place yesterday afternoon for digging up the streets of the city without the necessary permit. Mr. Long was represented by Attorney John Erwin of this city, while Attorney William Leach appeared for the city of Amboy. The case is one of long standing in the court in which it was tried, having been continued several times. Dr. T. F. Dornblaser was the complainant. From the history of the case it appears that the physician purchased a tract of property from Mr. Long on Main street and at the time of the purchase believed that the sewer was installed. He later made an attempt to connect with the sewer on another lot adjoining which also belonged to Mr. Long and was stopped. He then laid a tile connecting with the sewer between the walk and the curb.

It is claimed that Mr. Long upon discovering that the sewer had been connected broke the tiling which had been laid by the physician. The suit was then started and with the decision in the case yesterday it is now believed that a damage suit will be started by the physician.

Miners' Heads Withdraw their Strike Order

courts to discontinue a strike, when apparently all the members of the union were behind the walkout, which was being conducted without any form of violence or damage to property.

Labor Backed Miners

Labor in general, as represented by the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor, had offered its unqualified support to the miners in their strike, while obedience or disobedience of a federal court order hung in the balance, and this fact gave miners representatives who favored holding out an argument which weighed heavily with some of their colleagues.

On the other hand, the president's designation of the strike as unlawful,
placed the coal workers in the position of defying the government of the United States, if they refused to call off the strike, and, aside from the consequences attaching to disobedience of the federal court order, many were adverse to considering anything which could be construed as lack of Americanism.

No Limit to Debate

There was no limit on the debate in the conference and many of the delegates spoke at length and some more than once on various subjects.

The general committee had been in session since shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning, taking only brief recesses for lunch and dinner. The proceedings were interrupted during the afternoon session by the appearance of United States Marshal Mark Storen and his deputies, who served 33 of the officials with copies of the temporary injunction, issued Saturday, and returnable Dec. 1. The writs in the restrain-ing order were made returnable Nov. 20.

Entrance Guarded

During the day approaches to the entrances of the conference hall were carefully guarded by a sergeant at arms and during recesses a man remained on guard in the hall, but in the later hours
of the conference the sergeant at arms disappeared.

The speeches at times were impassioned and voices from the hall rose above the hubbub of the hotel, in which the conference was held, but only a word now and then was distinguish-able. It is understood that all phases of the question were argued and the effect various actions might have on the organization entered into the discussion,
but according to members not a vote
was taken on any subject until the action early today was decided upon.

Officers in Conference

Shortly before the conference adjourned, President Lewis and William Green, secretary-treasurer held a long conference in the parlor of the hotel and later Mr. Lewis was seen pacing up and down the floor with head bowed as if in deep study. Developments after this conference came rapidly.

The recall of the strike order will open the way immediately for a resumption of the negotiations between the miners and the operators, as the operators have announced that they would be ready to consider a new wage agreement at any time the strike order was withdrawn. It is also understood that the question of arbitration entered largely into the discussion in the final stages of the meeting, but the miners' position on this subject was not announced.

The question of just how many of the coal diggers would obey the order rescind the strike was problematical early today. In some districts it was considered that the resumption of work would be general while in others it would be only partial and in some it is said, the return would be very slow.

Demands Brought Strike

The original demands of the United Mine Workers, which brought about the strike of approximately 425,000 bituminous coal miners of the United States, were drafted by the scale committee of the Cleveland convention of the organization, held last September, which also adopted the following resolution:

"We recommend that in event a satisfactory wage agreement is not secured
for the central competitive field Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, before Nov. 1, 1919, to replace the one now in effect, that the international officers be authorized and authorized to call a general strike of all bituminous miners and mine workers throughout the United States, the same to become effective on Nov. 1, 1919."

The main points of the miners' demands included a 60 per cent increase in wages, a 6 hour day from bank to bank, a 5 day week and time and a half for overtime and on Sundays and legal holidays. The joint wage conference of the operators and mine workers met in Philadelphia Oct. 9 and adjourned Oct.
11, failing to reach an agreement. The call for the strike at midnight Oct. 31
was issued from the international headquarters of the union here Oct. 15.

Government Takes a Hand

Then followed unsuccessful efforts of Secretary of Labor Wilson to bring about a settlement of the controversy and later the statement of President Wilson that the strike was unlawful.
The strike call remained in effect and a general committee of the mine workers
officials—the same which this morning agreed to comply with the mandate of Judge Anderson and rescind the strike order—refused to withdraw it, contending it had not the authority to do so.
On the same day, Oct. 31, the government took a hand in the controversy and obtained an order from United States District Judge Anderson restraining officials of the miners from directing or encouraging the strike.

which automatically became effective at midnight that night.

A number of officials of the organization including President Lewis and Secretary-treasurer William Green, were served with the writs, which were returnable Nov. 8.

In the meantime the walkout continued in effect and the strike benefit funds of the organization were tied up under the restraining order.

Last Thursday attorneys for the miners filed a motion to dismiss the restraining order and then at the hearing
proposed a postponement, in the hope,
it was said, that the strike could be settled out of court, but the government objected and the court overruled the motion to dismiss. On the government's showing, Judge Anderson issued the temporary injunction, with the order for the calling off of the strike. The miners' officials assembled the main committee here yesterday morning and after deliberating almost continuously from 10:30 a. m. until 4:10 a. m. this morning, decided to comply with the mandates of the federal court.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

It has occurred to the writer that something should be done by our local authorities AT ONCE to prevent patients from the State Epileptic Colony roaming around our peaceful city. These patients are more to be pitied than blamed, but unless they are confined to their home there will be crime around here that will startle the public. Several acts of these patients recently should convince our people that they should be restricted to their Colony. They have sufficient ground to roam over out at the Colony that will afford them the necessary exercise, and when they come into Dixon they should be accompanied by a guard.

clined to comment on the settlement of the strike.

"So far as the operators are concerned the situation is unchanged," Brewster said. "We have always been ready to resume negotiations with the miners
when the strike was called off."

Mr. Brewster was in conference today with a number of operators, who came here with him, and later they went to the office of Fuel Administrator Garfield.

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor was to meet this afternoon and it was said at federation headquarters that no state ment
on the strike settlement would be forthcoming in advance of the meeting.

Attorney General Palmer Talks

Attorney General Palmer on leaving the cabinet meeting made this statement:

"My information is that the miners
have submitted to the court the form of an order cancelling and withdrawing the strike order. The strike order having been withdrawn, therefore, the Secretary of Labor will today invite the operators and miners to meet immediately in conference to negotiate an adjustment of their controversy."

"I have been assuming at all times that the miners' organization would obey the law when it was called to their attention in the way it has been,
and I am glad they justified this assumption."

"The way is now open to a settlement
by the peaceful processes which should always be employed in settlement of such disputes without injury to the general public."

RUSSIAN FORCES ARE PREPARING TO START NEW SERIES BATTLES

American Red Cross Helps Civilians Evacuate City of Omsk.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Omsk, Monday, Nov. 10.—The advance of the bolsheviks has been held up along the Ishim river at Petropavlovsk. Both sides are seemingly reforming for a new series of battles, which probably will occur in the near future this side of Ishim.

Evacuation of Omsk by civilian institutions, hospitals, government offices and civilians continued in perfect order. There is a continuous stream of carts and trucks loaded with all conceivable articles on the way to the station but there is no undue haste and no panic.

American Red Cross Helps
Freezing weather, accompanied by a considerable snowfall makes severe the plight of the civilian refugees and the sick and wounded, who mostly are obliged to resort to unheated or partially heated box cars. The American Red Cross has removed a portion of the hospital patients to awaiting trains.

The American hospital is going to Irkutsk.
Admiral Kolchak yesterday informed American Consul General Harris of his intention to continue the struggle against the bolsheviks saying he was not discouraged by the present reverses. He expressed gratitude for American assistance and particularly emphasized his appreciation of the work of the Red Cross.

Omsk, Saturday, Nov. 1.—The advance of the bolsheviks has been slowed somewhat astride the Tiumen railway, the Siberian first army holding at present the Eitz river from Mulishinskoe on the north to the front of Galishmanova-Kozakova-Dubenkino-Petropavlovsk. The Ishim river and appeared in the rear.

Petropavlovsk was first entered by bolshevik troops who crossed a ford in of the Siberian outposts. The Siberian soldiers stoutly resisted the bolsheviks and held the town for some hours but were finally forced to evacuate.

A column of Orenburg cossacks is reported to be approaching toward Petropavlovsk from the southeast for the purpose of attacking the right flank of the bolshevik forces.

Paris Joined One- Paper Cities Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Nov. 11.—The principal morning newspapers joined forces and produced an edition this morning under the title "Presse De Paris." This was necessitated by the strike of linotypers and typographers called last night.

Agitators among the newspaper workers began with the strike in October of the newspaper distribution employees. The printers offered to support these men with a sympathetic strike, but eventually decided to demand extra pay of five francs daily in view of the high cost of living.

Directors of the newspapers subsequently met employees' representatives and pointed out to them the difficulty of granting the increase. As nothing was done in the matter the unions voted to strike.

Fourteen Reds Held in Chicago Stations

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Fourteen persons of more than 50 taken to the federal building last night for examination by agents of the federal Department of justice and a continuation of the drive on suspected radicals today were held. Six were members of the Union of Russian Workers, one being the secretary of that organization, and the other eight were said to be Chicago leaders of the radical element.

In the raid on the Union of Russian Workers a trunkful of incendiary propaganda was seized. Shotguns, with buckshot, also were confiscated, along with other arms and ammunition.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS.

SANDRA IS SHOCKED BY A LETTER FROM ROSE.

CHAPTER CXXII

I had another long letter from Rose Kemp. My heart ached as I read it, and tears filled my eyes. Often during the reading I had to wipe them away so that I could see the words.

"Dear Sandra: The end has come! I am about to leave Walter. I can endure no more. I have suffered so that I feel old. Oh, so old, and I look old too, which in his eyes is unforgivable. He has been so open in his affairs, that I can no longer retain a shred of respect and live with him. I might have known that a marriage begun in deceit—it was deceit when I did not tell father and mother, or you—would end in failure. But I loved him so, Sandra. I was afraid I would lose him if I did not do as he asked. I knew his reputation, spoke to him about it. But he swore he never had loved as he loved me, and that was the reason he had been called a philanderer that now he loved me, and I would never stray again."

"I, little fool that I was, believed him. He was handsome, he made love so wonderfully. I was his angel, his heaven." I winced at the expression, "his little love, and a thousand other things that I longed to hear, and that I believed he meant."

"The sad, the awful part of it all is that I still love him—still love to hear him say those very things he said when he was urging me to marry him. Now I KNOW he doesn't mean them, yet I shut my eyes and my mind and try to comfort myself that he does think a little of me."

"I think, Sandra, that men who 'pretend too much' are never men of deep feeling. Walter protested overmuch. He is shallow, and without honor—with women—as I wrote you before. It is strange that a queer angle some people have on things, isn't it? Walter has the name here in Chicago, as he had in Hendon, of being strictly honorable in business. His word is considered as good as his bond among men of affairs. Yet he will lie to wheedle, and cajole one woman after another without the slightest compunction."

"Once I told him I wished he would meet some woman whom he REALLY loved, and that she would treat him exactly as he had me. What do you think he said? That he was 'love-proof'. Then he went on: 'I did love one woman, but she was as inaccessible as the stars. Because she had the bad taste to love her husband.'

"Can you imagine anything more cruel than that speech? Someway I have always thought he liked you, Sandra. Do you suppose, just because he couldn't have you, he imagined himself in love with you? But he couldn't really be in love with anyone but Walter Kemp."

"I know you will regret that I am so miserably unhappy. I have written father; told him the whole story of repentance on my part; of the neglect and unhappiness caused because I was so selfish, so self-willed. But I also tried to make him understand how dearly I loved Walter. Dear old dad, he DID understand, and there is nothing but love and forgiveness at home for me. He wrote me to come at once and he would attend to all details of a divorce if I still wanted one. I DO want one at times; then at other times I feel that if I free Walter I never can be happy again, because I will have lost all hold on happiness when I lose him. I cannot eat or sleep, I am so miserable. Perhaps if I leave him for a few weeks, he will miss me and want me back. I think I shall try that. I will go home altho it will be hard to face the girls and boys if they know, and see what happens."

"I think of you often, dear Sandra, you and your husband and that precious baby. How wonderful it must be to be married to a man who loves you, thinks of you—instead of one who neglects and embarrasses you. Love from your unhappy Rose."

"Poor Rose!" I said as I laid the letter away. "Poor girl." Then I added, "My troubles seem small compared to hers yet I often have been unhappy a good deal of the time. 'Then a still small voice whispered: 'Yes, but never have you been truly doubtful of your husband's faithfulness. And Rose KNOWS.'"

Strike News Caused Weakening in Market

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Corn prices weakened today owing largely to announcement that representatives of the mine workers had voted to rescind the strike order. Better weather counted also as a bearish influence. Selling pressure, however, was only moderate. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/2 to 1 1/2 c lower, with December 1.32 to 1.33 and May 1.25 1/2 to 1.26 1/2, were followed by a slight rally and then by a sag lower than before.

Oats declined with corn. After opening unchanged to 1/2 c lower, including December at 71 to 71 1/2, the market continued to descend.

Provisions were easier as a result of setbacks in the value of corn and hogs. Most of the dealings were in January delivery of lard and ribs. Subsequently, the fact that cash wheat prices were but little affected by the government offer to re-sell wheat led to a rally in the corn market. Closing quotations on corn were unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2 c lower, with December 1.33 to 1.33 1/2 and May 1.26 1/2 to 1.26 1/2.
